

Turn passion into progress

International Graduate Trainee (m/f/d)* – focus Economics

Location
Munich

Our International Graduate Trainee Programme will provide you with a thorough introduction of the diverse activities of a leading global reinsurer. It gives you the opportunity to advance your expertise and personal development.

Over a period of 24 months, including an international assignment, you will receive a profound grounding in professional, methodological and social skills, which will qualify you for assuming responsibility at Munich Re worldwide. We are looking for graduates who want to shape the future of our core business (re-insurance) together with us. If you enjoy working with innovative questions in a very dynamic and challenging environment we are looking forward to your application.

Our Trainee Programme has been certified as “Fair Trainee Program 2020” by Trendence.

Your job

- Exciting and varied work focusing on risk underwriting in the core business of Munich Re (e.g. working in collaboration with data analysts, developing product and client strategies, performing risk analysis, use of different pricing models, profitability and performance analysis)
- Excellent learning opportunities and cross-functional first-hand experience in our global business units
- International assignment of three months to extend your intercultural experience
- Distinguished global learning programme, enabling you to acquire profound knowledge of our business and methods as well as to build up your soft skills
- Opportunity to quickly build up a broad network of industry experts within Munich Re

Your profile

- Very good university degree in economics, finance or social studies with economical sub focus
- Practical work experience, ideally in the insurance/ financial industry, big data or risk management
- Strong quantitative skills & analytical abilities
- Experience abroad during your studies, practical training or work experience
- Communicative competence, empathy, and willingness to learn
- Effective in written and verbal communication in English, fluency in another language is desirable
